"WITH THE COLORS"

Camp Bartlett Sept. 28 1917

Dear Folks:-

In the letter I wrote you to-day I forgot to put in a picture for Annie and Beekie, please give them one each.

Sunday is the day we leave so the officers told us to-day but keep it quiet.

We are burning up old clothes and things that we can't carry with us.

Well its going to be a great trip across I'll like it over there.

I'll always write to you and don't forget to answer, its bad enough here but over there it will be still worse we will get it once in while you know it will be censored.

This is what my address will be when I'm over there, you see we don't know where we will land.

CORP. DANIEL DOUGER.

CO. K-104 U.S. INF.

52-BRIGADE

26-DIVISION

AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

VIA. NEW YORK - CITY

There's nothing to do now so I'm writing you this letter.

Regards to everybody.

Don't write to the above address until I let you know I'll write to you and let you know.

I'll try and enjoy myself over there that is not to be homesick and lonesome off course I'll be thinking of you all the time also of my girl and that makes a fellow feel blue but I'll be brave and stand.

When I'm over in Germany
I'll take the mustache of ^{the} Kaiser and bring them back and I'll make a
* clothes brush out of it.

My girl told me I'm coming back after the war so after the war I'll look for a job in New York city.

Doug.
