Dear Folks:-

Can let you know that I'm feeling fine and hope to continue so. Excuse me for not writing so often because I'm in Lowell so often that I don't get a chance to write but I won't be in Lowell again until I'm discharged.

I was in Lowell for the Easter holidays (3) days and I went again Saturday and I just got back.

Well we are going to be examined tomorrow and Friday we parade in Boston and Sunday we get our discharge.

It looks like Sarah was coming to New York with me, she doesn't want to stay in Lowell let me know what you think of it, I think she ought to stay where she is, she is working and she has quite a few dollars.

Well we are living the life of Riley in this camp good eats a good bed and only an hour and a half of drill a day pretty soft. Well I'll have to close now, regards to all
